KITTISAK SRATHONG

Full-stack Developer

My name is Bas, and I've been working as a Developer for over five years. While I specialize in Front-end development, I also enjoy working on Back-end tasks. I'm skilled in creating animations and building responsive, user-friendly websites.

I love solving complex problems through code and turning challenges into effective solutions.

I consider myself responsible, flexible and a team player who works well with others.
